What is Van Deventer-Maas Stichting?

Van Deventer-Maas Stichting is a private foundation with a mission to support the education of young talented Indonesian students.

The Stichting was founded in 1947, pursuant to a Provision in the last and will of Mrs. Elizabeth Maas, the widow of Mr. Coen van Deventer.

In 1979 Van Deventer-Maas Stichting merged with Tjandi Stichting (founded in 1913) and Van Deventer Stichting (founded in 1917), thereby absorbing the Kartini foundation, which had been founded in 1913.

Mr. Van Deventer, who was critical of the unequal financial relationship between the Netherlands and Indonesia, wrote an article “debt of Honor and initiated ethical policy”, was focusing on the development and education of the Indonesian people.

The couple have decided to make their wealth available for the personal development of the young Indonesian people. One of the supports given is scholarship for young, smart, good performance, talented and financially deprived students.
